*The band called STILL ALIVE goes live this saturday May 17th in concert at the Tropical Heatwave in Ybor City Tampa, FL.
27th Annual WMNF*

/24-7PressRelease/ - PHOENIX, AZ, May 14, 2008 - After only a few short weeks after entering the US (Miami, FL) STILL ALIVE has been ripping it up and laying down their stylish and funky groove lines at the clubs and for their fans. Their powerful and their own unique style of Reggaeton mixed with Hip-Hop, Latin Rap, and countless other music styles, are turning heads and capturing people's attention real fast. A lot of people and industry professionals here are now seeing this amazing group for the first time and speculating that this family music group maybe the next BIG Latin sensation coming out of South America....

These Colombian boys are spitting all kinds of original/catchy rhymes and lyrics.

"We are ready and we go real hard, 150%, all the time, every time we hit the stage and we are letting people and the world know we are here to stay," states STILL ALIVE.

When you see and hear us perform, you are getting a look at our unique new style of music we have created. We have created a new paved road of music, a new style of music, which is why our album is called 'Un Nuevo Estilo,' (A New Style.)

After coming off the set of Telemundo and taping for the show "CADA DIA,"

STILL ALIVE is all fired-up and hyped and is now getting ready for this week's 27th Annual WMNF Tropical Heatwave in Ybor City Tampa, FL. STILL ALIVE is scheduled to perform at 10:30 pm at the Orpheum. STILL ALIVE (Aun Viven) is definitely on a run and it's gonna be very hard to slow these 'B-Boys' down and keep them STILL!
