MARZIA PRINCE WINS THE LYZABETH LOPEX FAME CLASSIC BIKINI COMPETITION ON SATURDAY MAY 12, 2008 IN TORONTO, CANADA

Marzia Prince, global magazine model for Gaspari Nutrition, won the Bikini Competition at the Lyzabeth Lopex Fame Classic that was held in Toronto, Canada on Saturday May 12, 2008. As the result of her victory, Marzia has earned her pro card with FAME.

/24-7PressRelease/ - DALLAS, TX, May 14, 2008 - Marzia Prince, global magazine model for Gaspari Nutrition, won the Bikini Competition at the Lyzabeth Lopex Fame Classic that was held in Toronto, Canada on Saturday May 12, 2008. As the result of her victory, Marzia has earned her pro card with FAME. Less than 100 women worldwide have the honor of holding a FAME pro card. This victory is another major success in 2008 for Marzia who also was selected FHM100 Most Sexiest Women in the world in their South Africa publication and recently with the hostess for the NPC Ronnie Coleman Bodybuilding/Figure Classic held in May. Also, Marzia is schedule to be featured in Muscular Development Magazine with her sister, Alizia Gutierrez this summer. Marzia will be competing in the FAME Pro World Championships in Toronto, Canada this summer.

"I am very excited about the victory at FAME in Toronto and winning my pro card," voiced Marzia Prince - Glamour/Fitness Model. "The last 24 months have been an extremely fast pace and rewarding. The hard work in the gym and having the right nutrition plan has paid off with the success I am achieving. Winning the FAME competition in Toronto is the beginning of my move from just a fitness model to more mainstream glamour model opportunities. Also, I want to be able to use the FAME organization as a platform to promote to women around the world about how to keep a healthy and fit life no matter how old you are. I am looking forward in competing on the Pro Tour with FAME and working with them in any capacity they may need me to promote fitness anywhere around the world."
