Panama City Beach, FL Resort Wins Local Awards

Bay Point Marriott in Panama City Wins Three Top Awards from Panama City Living Magazine

/24-7PressRelease/ - PAMANA CITY BEACH, FL, May 15, 2008 - Panama City Living, the city's top local magazine, recently released their choices for top awards to include local attractions and venues throughout the city. The Bay Point Marriott, a Panama City Hotel, came out on top, bringing home three high honors from the magazine.

The tranquil 12, 000 square foot Serenity Spa won the "Best Spa Services" award. Offering guests a relaxing assortment of traditional spa treatments, including body scrubs and wraps, facial treatments, manicures and pedicures, massages, paraffin hand treatments, steam rooms and an assortment of waxing services, this Panama City Beach, FL spa resort is now recognized as the best the city has to offer.

30 Degree Blue also won a distinguished award. The "Best Wine List" award draws attention to the Panama City Beach restaurant's extensive wine list. 30 Degree Blue also features a chic martini bar to accompany regional cuisine and fresh seafood all to be enjoyed while overlooking exquisite St. Andrews Bay.

The resort as a whole won the "Best Weekend Getaway" award, which simply supports what the hotel already believes to be the case. "We were already confident in the fact that we provide guests the ultimate in tropical getaways," explains Jeff Segan, general manager of the Bay Point Marriott. "These awards only enhance our commitment to excellence at the property as a whole."
