With the Official Launch of Zrii coming Next Week (May 22nd), HomeBizAllStar.com Braces itself for what Will Be the Greatest Network Marketing Launch the Industry has seen in Years.

With more and more people looking to work at home and own their own home based business, HomeBizAllStar.com and Zrii stand to see a huge influx of distributors over the coming months. Zrii has the great product and leadership, and HomeBizAllStar.com has the tools and support.

/24-7PressRelease/ - GREEN VALLEY LAKE, CA, May 15, 2008 - On May 22nd, 2008, Zrii will officially launch in North America and Canada. Led by Bill Farley, known for his work with such brands as Fruit of the Loom and BVD, Zrii has already been breaking records, even without having officially launched. Those interested in working at home with their own home based business have been watching this company as it becomes more and more evident that the smart choice is to become a distributor for Zrii. It is hard to look past the sales, the leadership and the compensation plan when deciding what path to take when starting your own business.

Over the past month, www.HomeBizAllStar.com, a leading Zrii Team, has been working on growing their business to be ready for the massive influx anticipated by Zrii's launch. Everything from the free instructional e-book available to new enrollees within 24 hours of enrollment to the leads the site generates proves www.HomeBizAllStar.com to be a hot pick within the Zrii organization. Rather than follow the generally accepted ideology put out there by sponsors within most organizations, HomeBizAllStar.com has taken on some more innovative principles that has propelled it past other Zrii teams.

Most notably, the approach that a new distributor must pitch the business and product to friends, family, and co-workers doesn't fly with www.HomeBizAllStar.com. After much study, founder Jim Guffey has woven a web across the internet, catching prospective distributors from all corners. This has eliminated the need for cold calling, giving embarrassing sales pitches to family, and buying leads. The cost savings to the team is impressive to say the least. Further, serious business builders within the team have access to the leads generated by the website(s), taking the hardest part of network marketing out of the equation.

It is www.HomeBizAllStar.com's goal to equip it's new distributors with the tools, support, and know-how to be able to begin earning right away. Upon enrollment, a copy of the founder's e-book is sent to the new distributor; a book which provides comprehensive instruction to be able to set up capture pages, drive traffic, and generate leads. Not only are the instructions all there, but they provide the distributor with the cheapest, and in many cases free, methods to do so. Also given is access to two weekly conference calls: the first for bringing prospects to hear about the business and team, and the second to further provide instruction on development of their own lead generation.

Zrii has come into the market offering a very powerful combination of a great product, a great endorsement from the Chopra Center for Wellbeing, fantastic leadership in Bill Farley, et. al., and a motivating compensation plan for it's executives. www.HomeBizAllStar.com has done equally as well bringing the new executives the supportive leadership, comprehensive instructions on building their own system, the ability to utilize business building leads, and most importantly the opportunity to start earning 24 hours after enrollment - seeing their income in as a little as a week. Together, Zrii and www.HomeBizAllStar.com make the best opportunity for new entrepreneurs looking to make a great deal of money, leveraging the power of the internet and network marketing.

www.HomeBizAllStar.com is a Successful, Smart Zrii Team that offers those interested in having a successful work at home business the tools and support they need to be successful 24 hours after enrollment. For more information on how we can help you start making money within 24 hours, seeing checks come in the first week without using the conventional tactics most uplines suggest, please send an e-mail to jim@homebizallstar.com or visit the site and leave you're information for one of our successful team members to contact you.
