Jika International announces completion of conference centre upgrade

Jika International Hotel in Fairfield, Melbourne is excited to announce the completion of their conference centre upgrade.

/24-7PressRelease/ - FAIRFIELD, AUSTRALIA, May 15, 2008 - The Jika conference centre now boasts four rooms equipped with the latest in audio visual technology. All conference rooms now also include the following facilities: Private foyer with built-in bar, natural lighting, individually controlled air-conditioning, dance floor and stage, private male and female toilets and independently controlled lighting.

Jika International General Manager Simon Sokolski said "The new upgrade to our conference facilities has significantly improved the overall offer of our hotel; especially in regard to catering for residential conferences which is our core business. Combined with the recent completion of refurbishment of our entire motel complex; we are confident our new facilities will meet the needs of consumers in both the corporate and leisure markets"

The entire upgrade of the hotel including motel and conference facilities has cost close to one million dollars.

The Jika conference centre also offers free off-street parking for over 120 vehicles; and is ideally located just 6km north east of the Melbourne CBD. The facilities cater for groups of 5 through to 200 people.

The conference centre is the ideal location for your upcoming event; just 500 metres along the Chandler Highway from the Eastern Freeway.

Jika International's residential conference packages also offer fantastic value for money. All inclusive packages start from $97.00 per person (twin share). Tailored packages are also available to meet any specific requirements. The motel can accommodate up to 130 persons.

The Jika also caters from functions of all types; ranging from cocktail parties up to 200, to three course sit-down dinners for 140 guests.

Jika International is a preferred supplier to some of Australia's biggest companies; including CSR Humes, Coles Myer group, Sigma Pharmaceuticals, Amcor Australia, NAB and many more.

Jika International hotel complex includes a motel which has a diverse mix of 50 four star quality rooms ranging from standard rooms to deluxe spa suites. The conference and function centre consists of 4 rooms catering for groups of 5 up to 150; as well as the popular Viva restaurant. Just 6km from Melbourne CBD and with free off-street for over 100 vehicles; the Jika conference centre is the perfect venue whether corporate or private. All conference rooms are also fitted out with the latest in audio visual technology.
