SKY ANGEL BECOMES TITLE SPONSOR OF JFEST 2008

Annual Event in Chattanooga, Tenn. a Day of Christian Fun and Fellowship

/24-7PressRelease/ - CLEVELAND, TN, May 16, 2008 - Sky Angel U.S., LLC., a national provider of faith-based and family-friendly television and radio programming to your television set through the use of a high speed internet connection, are proud title sponsors of Jfest 2008, the Christian music festival brought to the Chattanooga community by FM radio station J103 and ministry partner Food for the Hungry on May 31 at Camp Jordan.

"Sponsoring Jfest is a wonderful way for Sky Angel to celebrate the second anniversary of our Cleveland operation," said Ken Douglas, vice president. "We're looking forward to a great day of fellowship and sharing Sky Angel's mission: To build and operate a global communications system as the most effective means of assuring that the Gospel will penetrate every nation, culture and people."

"We're always excited to support such a worthwhile cause and, at the same time, provide the Christian community an opportunity to be introduced to our new and exciting faith and family alternative that provides families with an exciting new way to watch inspirational TV," said Tom Scott, Sky Angel's president and chief operating officer.

Partners for Christian Media have produced Jfest since 1999, gathering crowds of up to 12,000. This year's lineup includes Big Daddy Weave; Newsong; Matthew West; Building 429; Vicki Beeching; Scott Krippayne; and Steve Fee. The day will include games for children and a variety of food and refreshments.

Sky Angel recently introduced cutting edge IPTV technology that uses a set top box to bring quality faith based and family friendly programming to your television set. Sky Angel IPTV provides a low cost, high quality line-up that includes over 65 television and radio channels and features the widest variety of Christian channels ever made available in one package by a television service provider, plus many popular mainstream family channels, including news and sports.

Sky Angel subscribers to the faith-based channels are able to watch any program carried on the faith based channels in the last 48 hours without the need for a DVR or the need to remember to tape the programming. Through this feature, they are able to select from more than 2,000 faith based programs at any one time -- at their own convenience -- using the 48-hour playback feature. Sky Angel's service also offers the ability to fast-forward, rewind and pause this faith-based programming up to 48 hours after broadcast using their standard playback feature.
