Randy Waltz, Paramedic, Distinguished by Cambridge Who's Who for Excellence in Emergency Medical Services

Mr. Waltz's expertise is in overseeing advanced life support treatments. As a paramedic with the Brownsburg Fire Territory, Mr. Waltz is usually the first person on the scene when somebody needs help.

/Cambridge Who's Who/ - Brownsburg, IN, May 16, 2008, Randy Waltz, Paramedic for Brownsburg Fire Territory, has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in all aspects of emergency medical services.

As a paramedic with the Brownsburg Fire Territory, Mr. Waltz is usually the first person on the scene when somebody needs help. He works with a team to ensure the safe arrival of the individual at the hospital and lets the doctor taking over know the patient's vital signs, medical history and any appropriate interventions, such as medication administration, airway management and cardiac monitoring during the time of transport. His expertise is in overseeing advanced life support treatments. Mr. Waltz notes that he became involved in his profession because he has always been interested in healthcare professions, and he particularly enjoys the fast-paced nature of his work. The most rewarding aspect of Mr. Waltz's career is helping others and saving lives.

Mr. Waltz is a member of Danville Kiwanis' Club of Hendricks County and the Fellowship of Christian Firefighters International. An expert in emergency medical service, he is available to speak with the media. Contact (317) 852-1117.
