There is a great section on Luxury Domain Names. Luxury is a $160 billion industry and growing strongly. There is a big and constant demand for luxury. These Luxury Domain Names are ideal to develop sites that can be easily turned into brands.

Paul Wilson the manager and domain name expert at 200Best.com explains:

"We have so many high quality generic domain names and it's hard to know which are the best ones. We decided to select our 200 best domain names for this new site. The selection process was very tough because we had to reject so many high quality domain names. We finally got the selection down to 250 domain names, 50 over our initial limit"

"Did we miss any high quality domain names? No, we didn't miss them, we simply had to remove hundreds of high quality domain names from our selection if we didn't want to go over 250 domain names".

"Our section on Luxury is truly fantastic with one luxury domain name better than the next. You have to see it to believe it"
