Harbor Beach Marriott Resort & Spa Caters to Summer Travelers with Stay-Cation Savings

Family Package Offers FREE Kids' Activities, In-Room Movie, 20 Percent Discount at Spa at Harbor Beach, Complimentary Self-Parking & More

/24-7PressRelease/ - FORT LAUDERDALE, FL, June 08, 2008 - According to the 2008 summer travel survey by AOL, 66% of American travelers plan to keep their vacations close to home this summer due to the rise in gas prices. In response to this "stay-cation" trend, Harbor Beach Marriott Resort & Spa is offering valuable savings for those looking to experience Fort Lauderdale this season. Valid through September 30, the Summer Family Escape package at this luxury Florida beach resort starts at $263 per room, per night and includes the following*:

- OvernighFort Lauderdale beach front hotel accommodations in a deluxe guest room
- Complimentary cabINETTE or beach umbrella on Fort Lauderdale's largest private beach
- Harbor Beach Pass which includes daily access to the Spa at Harbor Beach amenities ($30 value)
- One in-room family-friendly movie ($16 value)
- 20% off all treatments at The Spa at Harbor Beach
- 20% off all purchases at the Tranquility Spa Shop
- Free self-parking in resort garage ($21 value)

Keeping an eye on additional expenses for guests, this beach hotel in Fort Lauderdale, Florida provides guests with a variety of complimentary daily activities including beach volleyball, basketball, ping pong, dive-in movies and more. Located just offshore is one of the best diving locations in the U.S., and guests can begin their underwater adventure with a free introduction to scuba diving (ages eight and up) at the hotel's pool. While kids enjoy the fun in the sun, mom and dad can relax with weekly evening lobby receptions offering free Starbucks coffee or wine tastings as well as live music.

To offset the rising cost of prices at the pump guests can leave car keys in guest rooms and enjoy the city by water taxi and on foot. Whether strolling along Las Olas to visit the chic boutiques and regional specialty stores or walking through the various exhibits at the Museum of Discovery and Science, families have plenty to see and do while in South Florida.
