Myth Golf and Banquets invites golfers to walk the par 3 "Little Myth" golf course on June 23rd free of charge. Families can enjoy a free day on the par 3 or rent a cart to ride. Rob Vargo, owner of Bruce Hills Golf Club near Romeo is excited to introduce the all new 27 hole golf course to the public.

/24-7PressRelease/ - Oakland, MI, June 13, 2008 - Myth Golf and Banquets has an 18 hole championship level course in Oakland township, Michigan. Also on the same property is a very challenging 9 hole par 3 course named "The Little Myth." Robert Vargo, who also owns Bruce Hills Golf Club near Romeo, is inviting the public to a ribbon cutting celebration hosted by The Romeo Chamber of Commerce on June 23rd. The par 3 course will be free of charge to all golfers who walk on that Monday. Tee time reservations are advised! Appetizers and refreshments will be served in the 200 capacity formal banquet hall from 4 to 6p.m. The golf course formally known as Beaver Creek has forgone many positive and exciting changes with the 12 year owner of Bruce Hills in charge. Driven by a passion for rebuilding golf courses, Vargo purchased Beaver Creek in late November of 2007 and has made many positive changes. He plans to make Myth Golf and Banquets a "must play" lower Michigan golf destination!
