She also has celebrity guests like Sidney Poitier!

June 14, 2008, host Parthenia Izzard, CNHP and psychologist, will talk with Kate McLaughlin, author of Mommy I'm Still in Here: One family's journey with bipolar disease.

Kate L. McLaughlin frequently speaks and writes on the topics of communication, education, family issues, and mental health. Committed to increasing understanding and acceptance of, along with compassion and support for, the mentally ill, she is a member of the Depression and Bipolar Support Alliance on Mental Illness and the Juvenile Bipolar Research Foundation. She also participates in NAMI's Family-to-Family program. She lives in Arizona with her husband, Mark, and their youngest daughter, Monica.

At the end of this June 14, 2008 program Host Parthenia Izzard will have Monique Chapman, author of the Getting Your M & Ms: The men and money book, with Monique's Moments. This book is just as helpful to men as it is to women. Monique will share her intuition about world affairs and caller's non-medical concerns.

Check Host Parthenia Izzard's website, www.amtherapies.com, to see who her guest will be June 21, 2008.

The Achieve Radio studio is in California and you can listen to the show live online on Achieve Radio as explained above. To call in during the program CALL 888.235.7374 [new number] or send Parthenia Izzard an instant message during the program on the Achieve Radio site. WE ARE NOW EXCLUSIVELY ON THE INTERNET! Because it is produced on the internet the sound quality is great!

Parthenia Izzard's private practice is in Pennsylvania where she sees clients. You can purchase her first co-authored book on her site, 101 Great Ways to Improve Your Health and her own book not too far behind.

Go to Parthenia Izzard's website, www.amtherapies.com, for the schedule of radio program guests, information about her practice, her blog, and newsletter. Be well

We listen to your concerns about the unexplained aches and pains and symptoms that doctors cannot identify or explain. We offer a holistic approach to preventive care. At Alternative Medicine Therapies, we employ techniques that add to the quality of your life. On the radio I endeavor to present a new guest each week who will be a representative from the world of alternative medicine therapies, related products and issues. These programs should lead you to a healthier way of life.
