Your Domains Name Hosting Co. Challenges the Big Companies with Price, Products and Service. Introduces 30-Day Free trial hosting.

Today, Your Domains Name Hosting Co., has released their new site and products. With over 3,000 customers and $1.5 million investment, Your Domains Name Hosting Co. is serious about being a major force in the Hosting world. Introduces their 30-Day Free Hosting Trial.

/24-7PressRelease/ - ALBANY, NEW YORK, June 14, 2008 - In a bold move, hosting company, Your Domains Name Hosting Co., upped the ante to large hosting companies, by introducing a Free 30-Day Hosting Trial, more practical hosting products and plans, that are price structured to challenge the likes of Godaddy.

In an interview, Director and CEO, Dr Darrell Ridley said, "We are taking it to the big boys by offering customers realistic hosting plans and products, and at much better prices." Adding, "We have introduced a Free 30-Day Hosting Trial, so potential clients can experience our products and services, before they invest their hard earned money in a hosting account."

Your Domains Name Hosting Co., with their servers in GNAX AtlantaNap Data Center, Atlanta, Georgia, have implemented Shared hosting, VPS hosting and Dedicated servers. "We have implemented new Dual Core and Quad Core Enterprise class servers," Dr Ridley reported, "which are much faster and more reliable."

The biggest improvement is prices. The TLD's of .com, .net and .org are priced lower than other competition, for only $6.95. Shared hosting, VPS hosting and the Dedicated server plans are much lower in price and with more feature-rich, than most rivals. With over 3,000 customers and $1.5 million investment, Your Domains Name Hosting Co. is serious about being a major force in the Hosting world.

Your Domains Name Hosting Co.'s major site, has some great articles on hosting your website, SEO tips and downloads. "Our biggest asset is our customers," Dr Ridley explained, "so we need to provide the very best possible service and support for them. We have improved our renowned support services by implementing a support ticket system. We have the best dedicated technical support team in the industry, and it is now even better! We are the only hosting company that stands by our products and services 100%, and provides, an Anytime Money Back Guarantee!. So what do have to lose?"

Your Domains Name Hosting Co. has been in operation since 2003 and has always focused on the more advanced webmaster. Their main office is in Albany, New York, with offices in Australia, Atlanta and Singapore.
