Crayon's Children Retail Store Is Under New Management And A New Direction

Gail Roben an entrepreneur in Houston, TX, announced today that she has taken her business venture one step further by acquiring a 20 year old Children retail store.

/24-7PressRelease/ - HOUSTON, TX, June 15, 2008 - Gail Roben an entrepreneur in Houston, TX, announced today that she has taken her business venture one step further by acquiring a 20 year old Children retail store.

The store, Crayon's Children Resale, is located at 15969 Westheimer Rd in the Wingate Shopping Center in Houston, TX, and carries gently used and new items for boys and girls in many different sizes as well as maternity wear, toys and furniture including walkers, pack n' play, toddler beds, bounciers, strollers, high chairs, infant swings, car seats and much more.

Acquiring the store is an asset to Gail Roben, as she has a Child Development degree and has been in the child care business for 23 years and always wanted to own a complimentary business. The business will be managed by a mother/daughter team as Gail's daughter Emily who the business idea was first present to will take their years of child care experience and community services into this new venture in hopes of reaching their and long term goals which are as follows:

Short Term: Network in order to grow and triple client base.

Join more mom groups as well as support more charities.

Long Term: Have more than one location.

Create effective advertisement through radio and TV commercials.

Become the best known resale store in the surrounding area
