Seven-Book Release Propels Author to National Level

Longtime publisher gears up for massive exposure with lineup of empowerment tools

/24-7PressRelease/ - June 16, 2008 - The notion that seven is the number for completion did not bypass Dr. Grace LaJoy Henderson. The longtime author and poet has artistically combined educational and inspirational material with mass appeal into seven empowering books and an audio CD, set for release on July 30, 2008. Rarely is such an undertaking pursued — and achieved.

Emerging from her own seven-year labor of written love is Grace LaJoy's power-packed presentation of uplifting messages. Modern self-help offerings are no match for the carefully crafted content, birthed from her intimate connection with God. Drawing from personal experiences and the life lessons of others, Grace LaJoy addresses a wide variety of topics from sexual purity to parental resources, to Christian education and guidance for aspiring authors. In all the subjects she covers, Grace LaJoy manages to capture reader attention — not an easy feat with the plethora of mixed messages clamoring for national public attention nowadays.

She promotes this creative blend of topics designed to reach people from all walks of life, including Christians and non-Christians, parents, youth workers, education administrators, and more. "I have always known that my writing was meant to be a blessing to millions of people, not just a select few," the author said.

Her work has even garnered the attention and endorsement of renowned author and motivational speaker Les Brown. Of her work, he proclaimed: "This was her assignment! ... That poem [I forgive you] just resonated with my spirit!"

Book titles for the July 2008 release are: Sexual Purity and the Young Woman: A Guide to Sexual Purity, Understanding Each Other: A Guide for Parents and their Children, Writer's Breakthrough: Steps to Copyright and Publish Your Own Book, In My Mama's House, How Can Jesus Be God?, More Than Mere Words: Poetry That Ministers!, and Blessed With A Gift. Along with the seven books, an audio CD, Poetic Empowerment, featuring poetry that ministers through spoken word, is set for release as well.

The seasoned publisher releases products under her company, Inspirations by Grace LaJoy. Its published products are sold to a variety of outlets, including school districts and libraries.

Date, time and location of the seven-book and CD release party to be announced. Retailers and Libraries can purchase books through Ingram/Spring Arbor and Baker & Taylor. Advance copies are available anywhere that books are sold.
