Passion for Historic Art Leads 4G Company Entrepreneurs to Their Ideal E-Niche

Classicartreplicas.com is the marriage of a lifelong fascination with ancient civilizations and a very 21st Century foray into E-niche marketing for 4G Company partners. As an Amazon Webstore, the site offers Amazon's ultra-secure order/pay system and A-to-Z customer guarantee.

/24-7PressRelease/ - BELLA VISTA, AR, June 16, 2008 - 4G Company, an internet marketing company located in Bella Vista, Arkansas, recently launched ClassicArtReplicas.com, an Amazon webstore offering hand-finished museum reproductions of art and relics from ancient Egypt, Greece, Assyria/Mesopotamia, Meso-America (Aztec and Mayan), early Christian and Celtic sources. The reproductions--made of bonded stone or cultured marble--include wall reliefs, wall fragments, masks, statues, busts, ornamental boxes, ornate crosses drawn from numerous cultures, and history-based chess sets.

From King Tut's golden funerary mask to an Aztec feathered serpent god, visitors will find decorative pieces for their homes or office that are not only dramatic, beautiful and interesting to look at, but come with their own unique history and mythology.

The 4-G entrepreneurs intend to parlay their interest in ancient art into a successful E-Commerce business by offering the highest quality museum reproductions, combined with a selection of other upscale art decor for home or office. Considering the Amazon E-store a work in progress, they will be looking for new offerings to further enhance and expand their product mix.

Imbedding an Amazon Associates "mini-store" within their Classic Art Replicas site gives 4G the ability to expand their product mix by offering related products from other Amazon vendors. The Amazon A-Store selection includes contemporary African and African-American art such as figurines, Batik and other fabric art, art posters, small sculptures and carvings. Oriental art is another category of A-Store products including decorative screens, jade carvings, vases and other items. In addition to the site's own collection of ancient Greek reproductions, the Associate store offers more Greek statuary reproductions and high-quality photographic posters of ancient Greek amphora and other artifacts, and stunning views of the ruins at Athens, Delphi and Olympia.

The Amazon connection offers E-shoppers other advantages besides additional product selection. All purchases on ClassicArtReplicas.com are handled by Amazon's ultra-secure order/payment system, and covered by the Amazon A-to-Z Guarantee of customer satisfaction and timely delivery.

ClassicArtReplicas.com offers many choices and styles for enhancing home and office decor with hand-finished museum reproductions, original art and a variety of high quality art reproduction and photographic posters.
