SPIRITUAL PROGRESS: A CONTINUAL STRUGGLE

Dr. Grace LaJoy Henderson's foray onto the national stage of authorship allows many to find words of inspiration.

/24-7PressRelease/ - June 17, 2008 - A vast majority seek to discover their own theology and define their relationship with God. Many find that this task is daunting, and is a perpetual process. In a world where communication among individuals and a Divine connection often lose receptivity; parents find it difficult to communicate with their children, and children find it difficult to communicate as well. Teens have individual struggles of growing up, and many individuals seek to grasp a more in-depth understanding of specific Christian principles. Issues such as these are addressed in Dr. Grace LaJoy Henderson's various writings and inspirational words.

On July 30, 2008 the Kansas City based author is set to release seven books and one audio CD nationally, catapulting her into a broader base of readership, providing comfort and words of inspiration to inquisitive minds and thirsty souls all across the nation.

Dr. Henderson's fervent desire to share her prolific works with the world is evident in her tenacious work ethic over the past seven years. In 2001 she pioneered her own publishing company, Inspirations by Grace LaJoy.

"I have always known that my writing was meant to be a blessing to millions of people, not just a select few," said Dr. Henderson. "This was her assignment" said Les Brown, critically acclaimed Author and Motivational Speaker.

Dr. Henderson conducts an annual Writer's Breakthrough Workshop for established writers and aspiring authors. Many of her writings have been featured in numerous newspapers, on radio, and television. Her books have been sold in various outlets such as school districts and libraries.

Book titles for the July 2008 release are: Sexual Purity and the Young Woman: A Guide to Sexual Purity, Understanding Each Other: A Guide for Parents and their Children, Writer's Breakthrough: Steps to Copyright and Publish Your Own Book, In My Mama's House, How Can Jesus Be God?, More Than Mere Words: Poetry That Ministers!, and Blessed With A Gift. Along with the seven books, an audio CD, Poetic Empowerment, featuring poetry that ministers through spoken word, is set for release as well.

Retailers and Libraries can purchase the titles listed above from Ingram/Spring Arbor and Baker & Taylor. Advance copies are available anywhere that books are sold.
