TopGamersZone is set to revolutionise the online gaming market by setting new standards in competitive video gaming.

TopGamersZone today launched TopGamersZone.com, a website dedicated to the world of competitive gaming and the global casual gamer community.

/24-7PressRelease/ - GLASGOW, SCOTLAND, June 18, 2008 - With a unique blend of member features, the latest gaming news and reviews and competitive video game leagues and tournaments and head to head challenges across all major gaming platforms and game titles, TopGamersZone is the gaming community site for PC and Console gamers alike that will enable gamers of all ages to grow their online gamer network and build their reputation as fast as their skills will take them.

TopGamersZone offers Members an exciting, fully-interactive experience where they can battle it out online for the chance to stake their claim as an e-sports legend and win big cash prizes. TopGamersZone is the first gaming site in the world that uses a unique member integrity rating system, an integrated match negotiating system and game skill level entry criteria for every competitive league and tournament to ensure that every member enjoys the best possible gaming experience.

Every competitive league and tournament facilitated by TopGamersZone provides real- to- life fixture schedules covering the duration of every league season and/or tournament competition so members know exactly who and when they are playing. In addition, members can also challenge each other to head to head matches for fun, glory or cash.

If you're a gamer and you compete and communicate regularly with your online friends, you need an online site as dedicated and focused on gaming as you are then TopGamersZone is the place for you!

TopGamersZone Ltd is a wholly owned subsidiary of UK based GHS Ventures Ltd, registered in Scotland, 327617.
