Unique Tees for Tykes Featured in Redbook Magazine

Baby Fish Mouth's Movie-Inspired T-shirts in the July 2008 Issue

/24-7PressRelease/ - NEW YORK, NY, June 18, 2008 - Known for their funny and cool baby t-shirts, Baby Fish Mouth will be profiled in the July issue of Redbook Magazine. Heidi Klum graces the cover. Two of Baby Fish Mouth's most popular slogans - "He made me a bottle I couldn't refuse" and "I love the smell of baby powder in the morning" will be featured in the magazine's popular "T-Spot" column.

Baby Fish Mouth offers several other witty takes on famous movie lines and shirts come in a variety of colors and are available in short sleeve t-shirts, short sleeve snapsuits and long sleeve t-shirts. All shirts are made in the USA, 100% cotton and come in sizes ranging from 3 months to 4T. The designs are all screen printed with a clean look that is an homage to the simple line drawings of 1960's Madison Avenue Advertising.

According to Baby Fish Mouth's founders Danielle Hughes and Cynthia Lyons, "We wanted to marry our love for pop culture and film with our love for our children."

As if these adorable shirts weren't unique enough, their packaging makes them stand out even more. All shirts come creatively packaged in their Signature Movie Popcorn Box, making it the perfect baby shower or new baby gift.

With accolades on Celebrity Baby Blog, The Daily Stroll, What's Hot for Tots and more, Baby Fish Mouth is sweeping the nation and quickly becoming part of the Hollywood lexicon as the shirts make their way into the hands of celeb Moms and Dads.
