Intrepid Travel's Announces New Arctic Adventures from the Travel Lab

Intrepid Travel starts a new travel trend, trips to the Arctic.

/24-7PressRelease/ - BOULDER, CO, June 19, 2008 - Intrepid Travel's new research and development division, The Travel Lab, announces the launch of five new Arctic adventures. These trips will take adventurers to the ends of the earth on an unforgettable offbeat adventure.

By creating these new Arctic adventures, The Travel Lab has created travel without limits, true off the beaten path exploration. These Arctic adventure tours present travelers with an opportunity to experience Antarctica and the Arctic like never before.

Taking adventure travelers way beyond the confines of a cruise ship, The Travel Lab's Polar journeys are the extreme of polar exploration offering airborne travel to the North Pole and expeditions into the largely unexplored mountains of Antarctica.

Some of The Travel Lab's new Antarctic and Arctic adventure travel trips include:

Polar Bears and Belugas Up Close

Swim with beluga whales, experience polar bear country, trek amongst caribou, experience solitude like nowhere else, <http://www.thetravellab.com/trips/tlpbb>

Canadian Arctic Dogsled Adventure

Discover the sheer joy of mushing across Arctic planes, learn of the Inuit lifestyle, experience life as it once was in the far North, <http://www.thetravellab.com/trips/tlcds>

Remote Mountain Expedition

Learn to kite-surf across the endless Polar planes of Antarctica, rappel down enormous ice cliffs, Wake up in an igloo, <http://www.thetravellab.com/trips/tlrme>

Land of the Emperor Penguin

See the emperor penguins closer than you ever imagined, ride in a DC3 plane, ice-climb previously unclimbed mountains, <http://www.thetravellab.com/trips/tllep>

Intrepid's Arctic adventure travel tours last from 7-13 days and range in price from $3,810 to $50,635. To learn more about Intrepid Travel's Arctic adventures please visit:
