Best Place to See Fireworks in Atlanta this Fourth of July

Luxury Atlanta Hotel Offers $149 per Night Independence Day Celebration Rate!

/24-7PressRelease/ - ATLANTA, GA, June 19, 2008 - The JW Marriott Hotel in Buckhead, Atlanta, connected by an enclosed promenade to Lenox Square shopping, offers locals and out-of-town guests the best hotel accommodations to celebrate this Fourth of July in the Atlanta area.

A tradition since 1960, Atlanta's Lenox Square is home to the Southeast's largest Fourth of July celebration, attracting more than 200,000 people every year. Now in its 49th year, Lenox Square will feature live entertainment on the mall's outdoor main stage and activities that the whole family can enjoy together. A military aircraft flyover, a "Kid Zone" featuring giant slides, an obstacle course and more will all culminate with the signature fireworks display. Over 20 minutes and thousands of fireworks will be accompanied by a musical soundtrack of the country's most patriotic tunes to keep guests enthralled to the very end. This legendary celebration begins at 5 p.m. on Friday, July 4, admission is free and the event is open to the public.

The JW provides genuine comfortable luxury in a unique and stylish setting, located in the heart of Atlanta's Fourth of July celebrations. This luxury Atlanta hotel is also within walking distance to an array of unique shopping and dining destinations, creating the perfect escape for any couple or family coming to Atlanta for the long weekend.
