Appuonline.com launches its beta version with coverage on Indian share market

Appuonline.com, an Indian finance portal, has been revamped to provide all important information related to Indian share market - BSE & NSE, on one page itself.

/24-7PressRelease/ - NOIDA, INDIA, June 19, 2008 - Appuonline.com has been given a completely fresh look with an enhanced coverage on Indian stock market. The Indian finance website has been thoughtfully designed and offers important capital market and most sought after information on a single page. The new one page concept saves browsing time and minimises effort to search for hard to find yet important information like live share prices for BSE, NSE scrips, most active securities, top gainers, top losers, charts etc.

"We aim to deliver crucial share market information to investors/share traders without them having to refer different web pages for different market information. Appuonline.com is a blend of simplicity, convenience, timeliness, and easy availability of updated and relevant Indian share market information", says Pankaj Agarwal, co-founder Appuonline.com.

Appuonline.com is trusted by users to get information like live share quotes for companies listed on BSE and NSE, charts for BSE Sensex and S&P CNX Nifty, benchmark/sectoral indices movement, 52 week high/lows, circuit filters, bulk deals, market news, announcements, corporate info like dividend declaration, right issues, bonus issues, stock split, global stock markets movement, exchange rates and much more.

This makeover is a result of multi-year experience and feedback from investors. Appuonline.com offers the most widely searched and commonly required information on Indian share market. It plans to introduce more features and information on other popular investment options soon.

Appuonline.com BETA is a finance portal which provides complete information about the Indian share market. It provides fast and updated information related to stock market of India on a single page thus saving browsing time and enabling easy fetching of Indian market info.
