MyMustangSite.com Reaches New Milestone - 2 Years and More than 9000 Members

A free social network for Mustang lovers announced a new record in membership size, expecting to double expansion in the next year

/24-7PressRelease/ - HOUSTON, TX, June 20, 2008 -- MyMustangSite.com announced this week that on the second anniversary of its creation, the site has served more than 9,000 Mustang enthusiasts. Created to help Mustang lovers connect, the site offers numerous free features that enrich the automotive community.

Membership at MyMustangSite.com is completely free and users are able to connect and share via their unique profiles. Once a user creates their new profile, it can be customized using MySpace layout codes to reflect their own personality. Currently, members that are involved in racing are using their profiles to keep track of their race results and stats.

While there are several sites dedicated to the American legend that is the Mustang, few go beyond the basic element of a message board. MyMustangSite.com was created to give Mustang enthusiasts an opportunity to build a true community and share their love of this iconic classic car. As the new model Mustangs are released and racing season kicks into full gear, traffic on the site has increase exponentially.

"MyMustangSite.com was created to offer the functionality and features of MySpace and bring those to the Mustang Community", states Chris, the creator of the site. Chris added that over the past two years, he has done his best to create a Mustang site like no other. "This is exactly what I had envisioned - a place for Mustang lovers to get together and talk about the passion they share for this incredible car" continues Chris.

The site hopes to add more than 10,000 new users over the next year. As America rediscovers its love of the muscle car, the site is poised to become one of the top Mustang destinations online. With numerous free features and a community of dedicated users, MyMustangSite.com has all the ingredients necessary for success.
