Mac-Gray Corporation Hosts Dexter Laundry Equipment Service Schools in Northeast

Mac-Gray Corporation recently held two free laundry equipment open houses and service school sessions for the Woburn, MA, and Windsor, CT areas.

/24-7PressRelease/ - FAIRFIELD, IA, June 20, 2008 - Mac-Gray Corporation (NYSE: TUC), a premier provider of laundry facilities management services and energy-efficient appliances, and a Dexter Authorized Distributor, recently held two free laundry equipment open houses and service school sessions for the Woburn, MA, and Windsor, CT areas. These one-day events offered in-depth service training from factory experts on Dexter washers and dryers as well as special seminars for commercial laundry owners on how to improve profits for their business. The seminar, developed by Mac-Gray, helps Laundromat owners identify areas for improvement including store appearance and additional revenue generating opportunities.

"Both of these events had good attendance, great participation and positive feedback from both our existing and our potential customers from across the Northeastern U.S.," said Tommy Heffernan, Northeast Regional Manager for Mac-Gray Services, Inc.

Mac-Gray is a premier laundry facilities contractor and a provider of other amenities and products to the Laundromat and multifamily housing industry. They provide commercial laundry equipment, domestic washers and dryers and a full line of kitchen appliances.
