Glass Doctor of Nashville Under New Ownership
Existing Shop Becomes New Franchise Territory

/24-7PressRelease/ - WACO, TX, June 20, 2008 - The Glass Doctor of Nashville franchise, now owned by Mike and Cathy Stout, is ready to "fix your panes. "

Part of the nation's largest full-service glass repair and replacement company, Glass Doctor of Nashville offers residential, automotive, and commercial glass services to Cheatham, Davidson, Dickson, Robertson, Rutherford, Sumner, Wilson and Williamson Counties.

The Stouts recently purchased the Nashville territory from Bill Ziegler, who still owns Glass Doctor stores in Ft. Wayne and Indianapolis, Ind., as well as Louisville and Owensboro, Ky.

"We're excited to be a part of the Glass Doctor franchise system — a company that is focused on customer satisfaction and makes it the top priority," Mike Stout said. "We looked at their system and how professionally it is run, and we're confident Glass Doctor of Nashville will be a successful franchise in its own right."

In May the Stouts attended a five-day training course on the latest glass repair technology, customer service techniques and marketing methods, which was conducted at the Glass Doctor corporate headquarters in Waco, Texas.

"Glass Doctor is a premier choice for glass repair and replacement nationwide," said Mark Dawson, president of Glass Doctor. "We're delighted Mike and Cathy have joined our franchise team, and we believe their business will be successful because we all operate under the same core values."

Located at 90 Fesslers Lane, Glass Doctor of Nashville is open 7:30 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.
