April Anne Wilburn Inducted into Cambridge Who's Who Executive, Professional and Entrepreneurial Registry

Mrs. Wilburn is the recipient of the Congressional Order of Merit.

/Cambridge Who's Who/ - Clermont, NJ, June 20, 2008, Mrs. April Anne Wilburn, Business Owner and Amish Country Furniture Specialist at Grandma's Treasures, has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in all aspects of entrepreneurship.

With 10 years of experience in country furniture, Mrs. Wilburn has been the owner of Grandma's Treasures for one year. She is considered an expert in managing operations, coordinating with clients and interior decorating. As the owner and specialist with hand crafted Amish furniture her responsibilities include ensuring customer satisfaction, managing operations, merchandising, and selling stained or customized hand painted hutches, corner cabinets, sideboards, dining sets, bedroom sets, several types of country Benches and much more in Teaberry's. Grandma's Treasures is a retail store that provides Amish furniture, LORI C. MITCHELL Folk Art Figurines and Fine Country and Primitive Collectibles.

Mrs. Wilburn graduated from Lower Cape May Regional High School. She sits on the Board of Directors for the Taxpayers Association, is the recipient of the Congressional Order of Merit and is a member of the National Republican Congressional Committee and the Daughters of the American Revolution. She attributes her success to the support she receives from her family and became involved in her profession because of her interest in fine crafted furniture. In the future, Mrs. Wilburn intends to expand her business.
