Access Discounts Offers Discounted Commercial Lighting

Summer savings on high bay & low bay lighting plus wall packs

/24-7PressRelease/ - MILPITAS, CA, June 29, 2008 -- AccessDiscounts.us - a leading supplier of commercial lighting, residential lighting and grow lights, today announced the newest inventory of quality commercial lighting lines, available at deeply discounted prices.

Ideal for commercial uses, customers can experience significant savings on commercial lights including high bay aluminum lights, low bay lights as well as wall packs designed for residential exteriors, entry ways, stairways, parking garages, or storage areas.

"Businesses can leverage the cost savings provided by Access Discounts and add value to their commercial projects as well as reduce costs associated with construction and development," stated Christina Roush, spokesperson for Access Discounts. "With the construction industry experiencing slow downs matching that of the real estate market, it is imperative for businesses to offset costs wherever possible. With the instant savings we offer, commercial customers can get more value out of their purchases without experiencing a huge hit on their pocketbooks," Roush concluded.

Installing commercial lighting fixtures such as the aluminum high bay and low bays provides brighter and lighter solutions. Access Discounts offers low cost solutions for commercial lighting solutions that address lighting as well as lower energy costs. AccessDiscounts.us provides 100% American made commercial lighting products guaranteed to be of the highest quality.

Access Discounts aims to provide customers efficient, effective and quality commercial and residential lighting solutions. By offering precision engineered products meeting ETL, UL & CUL standards, the company brings the very best lighting solutions to market while passing savings on to their customers. Home owners and businesses can take advantage of the price break and implement power saving solutions to their indoor and outdoor environments.
