/24-7PressRelease/ - Grand Blanc, MI, July 12, 2008 - London Financial Capital, LLC expands its business model to include International Oil & Gas Brokerage.

Since November 2007 London Financial Capital, LLC has been participating in substantial contract negotiations between US Crude Oil Buyers and Foreign sellers from both the European Union and Middle East countries. Since its jump into Crude Oil and Refined Fuel Commodities Brokerage Mr. Hunter Hebert President and CEO of "LFC" has been negotiating sale contracts throughout the US and Internationally.

Hunter Hebert states "In retrospect we should have been doing this many years ago but hind sight is 20/20 isn't it. We found it necessary to begin experimenting in this field when the Projections and Forecasts started pointing at $115.00 - $130.00 Per Barrel. The United States needs all the help it can get and if we can help in any way were proud to do it."

As of late London Financial Capital has been playing a proactive role through economic strategy and forward thinking. Based on current market conditions it looks to be a beneficial blend of Financial and Commodity industries.

London Financial Capital, LLC is predominantly a Finance Brokerage company specializing in finance placement through Hedge Funds, Private Equity Funds, Pension Funds, Venture Capital and Angel Investors.

In addition London Financial Capital is now currently partnering with a Wall Street firm specializing in Private Placement Memorandum's or "PPM" drafting and marketing through there network of Broker/Dealers.
