Vivian W. Hawkins Honored by Cambridge Who's Who for Excellence in Education

With more than eight years of professional experience, Ms. Hawkins specializes in teaching medically fragile children with severe and profound disabilities.

/Cambridge Who's Who/ - Hesperia, CA, July 17, 2008, Vivian W. Hawkins, Early Childhood Special Education Specialist for San Bernardino County Superintendent of Schools, has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in all aspects of education.

With more than eight years of professional experience, Ms. Hawkins specializes in teaching medically fragile children with severe and profound disabilities. She is responsible for visiting and assisting children in their homes. The most gratifying aspect of her career is working with her students and their families. She considers helping a student who was facing a critical situation to be her greatest professional accomplishment.

Ms. Hawkins received her Master's Degree in Early Childhood Special Education from California State University at Fullerton in 1999 and her Bachelor's Degree in Communicative Disorders. She is affiliated with the Council for Exceptional Children and the Infant Development Association of California. She stays current with the trends in her profession by reading ASHA Journal and the Zero to Three Journal.

An authority on education, Ms. Hawkins is available to speak with the media and may be reached via email at vwhawkins@hughes.net.
