Roy Teeluck Salon Provides Realistic Hair-Extensions and Wigs
For Celebrities and Cancer Patients

New York salon gives celebrities the looks they desire and gives back to communities and organizations while providing the confidence of a full head of hair.

*Voted to be #1 Best Hair Salon,
Best Color and Highlights New York's Citysearch*

/24-7PressRelease/ - NEW YORK, NY, July 17, 2008 - Ever wonder how celebrities grow their hair overnight? Or how their hair manages to look beautiful and healthy as they go from red to blonde to brunette within months? It's a simple trick and usually involves using hair extensions.

Not only do celebs use extensions and wigs to get the desired look, but women who have undergone chemotherapy also can get the benefits of having a full head of hair by going to the Roy Teeluck Salon in midtown Manhattan.

Who is Roy Teeluck?

Originally from England, Roy Teeluck has developed a reputation for his versatile and fresh styles in cities such as Paris, Los Angeles and New York. Roy Teeluck is a stylist to the stars and has been active in events such as the Ford Top Model Search, the Academy Awards Fashion Preview, the Sundance Gala in NYC, Tim Gunn's Guide to Style, and Bravo's Shear Genius.

Roy has more than 27 years of working with hair under his belt, and his salon has been voted #1 for the Best Hair Salon and Best Color and Highlights on New York City's Citysearch. Roy Teeluck Salon has also been featured in Allure, Vogue, Gotham, Self, InStyle, Town and Country, and Bazaar.

Roy Teeluck also did Hillary Clinton's hair for the cover of New York Magazine. He has established a team who can not only do the cuts and colors, but they can provide women with all the things to make them feel beautiful: manicures, makeup application, and eyebrow treatments.

Why choose Roy Teeluck Salon?

Located in the center of midtown Manhattan, the Roy Teeluck Salon can make even the most unassuming woman feel like a celebrity. With complementary wine, espresso, coffee and assorted teas, the experience doesn't have to be just a run of the mill trip to the beauty shop.

Roy Teeluck's Philanthropy

Roy understands that it is better to give than to receive. For this reason, the salon make regular donations to charities such as Amend, the American Cancer Society, the Brain Tumor Foundation, the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society and many more. And let's not forget the New York public and private school systems.

Find out why celebrities keep returning to the Roy Teeluck Salon in Midtown Manhattan to maintain their beautiful images. Not only will you be helping yourself look better, but you will also feel better knowing that the Roy Teeluck Salon helps others.
