Acnodes Introduces New Sun Compatible 1U Rack mount LCD Monitor Keyboard Drawer

17/19-inch 1U Rack mount LCD Monitor Keyboard Drawer - LCD monitor supporting resolutions 1280x1024 and 1152x900, 101-keys keyboard with built-in Sun keys and 3-buttons track ball. Available for 8/16 port USB KVM switch.

/24-7PressRelease/ - WALNUT, CA, July 19, 2008 - Walnut, CA based Acnodes Corp. today introduced a new line of 1U rack mountable drawers with monitor, keyboard and pointer designed to be compatible with Sun computers.

The keyboards have Sun layouts, including special Sun keys, and feature 3-button trackballs and 10-key keypads. The LCD screens run at the Sun standard resolution of 1152 x 900.

The units are available with 17 or 19-inch LCD screens and are available with 8 or 16-port USB KVM switches. The KVM units come with 6-foot-long cables that have a proprietary connector that plugs into the KVM switch and both VGA and USB connectors at the other end that go into the video adapter.

All units come with external AC power adapters.
