GAYLORD NATIONAL RESORT AND CONVENTION CENTER

DC Area Meeting Facility Featured on MeetingSource.com

/24-7PressRelease/ - WASHINGTON, DC, July 19, 2008 - Gaylord National Resort and Convention Center on the Potomac, the most luxurious Herculean meeting site on the Eastern seaboard, is this month's featured facility on MeetingSource.com (http://www.meetingsource.com/detailFacility.asp?Advertiser_ID=19828).

Only fifteen minutes from the Regan National Airport, the award-winning Gaylord National has 470,000 square feet of flexible convention, exhibition, pre-function and meeting space, including 82 function rooms and a roomy theater capacity of 5,555. Skip the stress of DC; just a few miles south, the National provides capital personal service, whether the customer is planning an intimate retreat or a convention of thousands.

Renowned for stand-out dining and a wealth of entertainment, Gaylord National conveniently joins elegant session space and regal accommodations, ensuring the event is productive and stress-free. Rooms look out over the scenic Potomac River and into the resort's exquisite 18-story glass atrium. With over 2,000 rooms and suites, the National serves as the premier resort and meeting destination in the Washington, DC region.

MeetingSource.com is the leading online resource for meeting planners to research, identify, contact and ultimately select the best facility for their group conferences, retreats, and off-site business functions.

MeetingSource.com (<http://www.meetingsource.com>) is proud to include Gaylord National as a featured facility for business functions for the month of July.
