Elite Sports Handicappers Release Early Bird Football Package

There is little dispute that the top football betting site for both free and premium information is OffshoreInsiders.com Now the elite sports betting experts on said site have full-season packages.

/24-7PressRelease/ - ALPHARETTA, GA, July 19, 2008 - The domain for football betting remains OffshoreInsiders.com. The nation's top sports betting site has announced Early Bird Special packages for NFL and college football picks for premier sports handicappers Joe Duffy and Mike Godsey of GodsTips and Stevie Vincent of Bet On Sports 360.

No handicapper dominates any sport the way Joe Duffy's GodsTips does the NFL. Senior Football Analyst Godsey is a World Wide Web NFL and college football handicapping pioneer going back to his GodsPicks days. Duffy is the only American sports handicapper ever to be designated Grandmaster sports handicapper.

Duffy is the same handicapping expert you have known for years as JD of the ACC on the nationwide scorephones and is widely accepted as the top sports betting expert in the world today.

The college and NFL package for the Dream Team at GodsTips is just $1,499 if purchased now. GodsTips enters on a 55-25 Game of the Year tear in football (20-6 last season), an amazing stat considering how most sports gamblers and sports services had a horrific year betting last football season.

Georgia humiliated Hawaii as Hawaii as the Bowl Game of the Year. The football betting experts also nailed the Bowl Moneyline Game of the Year (Miss State +130 on Dec. 29), Regular Season Game of the Year in CFB (Nov. 22 USC 20-point winner to ASU laying three), NFL Game of the Year (Nov. 11 underdog Arizona beating Detroit by double digits).

Some of the other winners were: On Sept. 20, Miami Florida was the ESPN Game of the Year. Laying -2, they crushed Texas A&M 34-17. On Oct. 4, it was our Thursday Game of the Year on South Carolina -5 to Kentucky. They win by 15. October 13, it Penn State was the Big 10 Game of the Year. Laying seven, they smash Wisconsin by 31.

Finally on October 20, we had to sweat one. Oct. 20 it was Florida beating Kentucky in the SEC Game of the Year. Then on Oct. 27, Tennessee squeaks one out against South Carolina as our Saturday ESPN Game of the Year.

Add to that, on Nov. 11 C-USA West Game of the Year on Tulsa, a bloodbath, while Cincinnati was a gift as our Big East GOY. Nov. 17 Kansas was our Big 12 edition and they win easily. But the biggest story of them all was on Nov. 22, USC laying just three points was the CFB Game of the Year. They win by 20!

Meanwhile, revolutionary NFL betting and college football odds guru Stevie Vincent also has a pick pack for the entire season for beating the NFL odds and college football line. The founder of forensic sports handicapping and the top betting expert in mastering over/under picks is also among the top four tipsters with football game side selections.

The Stevie Vincent Early Bird football package is $3,297. The sharpest gamblers can get both services for $4,499! All packages include preseason, regular season, the NFL playoffs (through the Super Bowl) and the college football bowls.

For those investors who prefer not to use their credit card, the top football betting site has alternative forms of payment such as personal check.
