Why this "New Trend" in Network Marketing is Turning Affiliate Marketers Heads

Innovative new trend appears in online marketing

/24-7PressRelease/ - The Woodlands, TX, July 23, 2008 - For years, many affiliate marketers have followed the trainings of Howie Schwartz.. And for good reason... Howie's underground marketing strategies such as "Black Hat Marketing" have been helping affiliates stay one step ahead of Google.

Now, as a direct result of Howie's trainings, a new trend has emerged in the area of Network Marketing — a field that has traditionally been ignored by affiliate marketers. And, this new trend promises to solve the problem that many affiliate marketers struggle with — the ability to create residual income.

To find out why Smart affiliates are now scrambling to get involved, see the live Video presentation right here:
