THE NEED FOR CERTIFIED IT PROS FUELS GROWTH

Careersaver's Training Solutions Expand with Demand for IT Certifications

/24-7PressRelease/ - LARGO, FL, July 26, 2008 - Florida based, INTERACTIVE STUDY SYSTEMS, expands and upgrades its' Careersaver Adaptive Training to meet the growing demand of today's' IT professional pursuing certifications with its' NO PASS/NO PAY GUARANTEE.

In a world that runs on information technology, the first thing recognized by the IT Professional is that their industry is in a constant state of flux. As a result, they must constantly update their skills to stay current and competitive in today's job market. Unfortunately these requirements are met with time and budget constraints along with the demands of everyday business. INTERACTIVE STUDY SYSTEMS (ISS) - CAREERSAVER is keenly aware of these challenges and has responded by upgrading its operations to improve the services that it provides to the busy IT Professional. These improvements are built on the back of ISS's existing reputation as the leader in IT Adaptive Learning.

Company President and founder, Jason Bortz, is pleased with the new structure, "our clients have demanded more .... We have improved customer service, dramatically increased educational content, added new video course ware, improved our audio component and strengthened our relationship with our key publishers, Microsoft, Pearson and Sybex. Additionally we have added more muscle to our NO PASS/ NO PAY GUARANTEE. Now in addition to a refund the course materials, we will also reimburse the cost of the certification exam."

For the past decade, CareerSaver has been developing and providing quality educational material to the IT Professional, renown for their SkillSaver software, their certification training set the standard for the industry. CareerSaver has consistently placed itself at the forefront of IT training; offering more courses, better and more effective methods of learning, more affordable pricing and the best guarantee for success in the industry.

Bortz went on to say, "we hear from customers daily telling us their success stories; and it is there that we find our success....the most important thing is results and we have heard our customers loud and clear." Mr. Bortz went on to say that the current wave of improvements is only the beginning for the customer and the company. "A quality product, from a reputable company, that serves the needs of the IT Professional at a reasonable price, I think that says it all."
