Randy Narod, President of Cambridge Who's Who and Owner of Island Park's Da Vinci's Restaurant, Names Ashley Bonheur of Island Park, NY the Recipient of the Cambridge Who's Who Future Leaders Award

The Cambridge Who's Who Future Leaders Award includes a $1,000 scholarship.

/Cambridge Who's Who/ - Uniondale, NY, July 29, 2008 — Randy Narod, president of Cambridge Who's Who, and owner of Da Vinci's Restaurant in Island Park, is pleased to announce that Ashley Bonheur of Island Park is the recipient of a Cambridge Who's Who Future Leaders Award, which includes a $1,000 scholarship. Bonheur received the award at the senior awards assembly at West Hempstead High School.

Randy Narod says, "Cambridge Who's Who members are distinguished leaders in business, entrepreneurship and the professions, so it's fitting that Cambridge Who's Who honors high school seniors who promise to become leaders of their generation."

Cambridge Who's Who called for essays from seniors at West Hempstead High School, as well as several other high schools on Long Island, where Cambridge Who's Who is headquartered. Cambridge asked students to describe attributes of leaders, demonstrate their leadership qualities and identify an individual who epitomizes leadership.

In her essay, Bonheur quotes Rosalynn Carter as saying, "A leader takes people where they want to go. A great leader takes people where they don't necessarily want to go but ought to be." Bonheur goes on to cite two students who were an inspiration to her in becoming a leader at West Hempstead High School and throughout her community.

Randy Narod observes, "In addition to being a high-achieving student, Ashley is a real leader. She has been president of the local chapter of S.A.D.D., vice president of Athletes Helping Athletes and treasurer of the Key Club. She was also a softball team captain and captain of the West Hempstead Relay for Life, a fundraising walk benefiting the American Cancer Society."

Narod says, "Ashley clearly has leadership attributes and promises to accomplish great things in her career. Cambridge Who's Who is pleased to contribute to her success with the Future Leaders Scholarship."
