/24-7PressRelease/ - CHICAGO, IL, September 07, 2008 - Hanworth Weir Appointed Transfer Agent for Bankcroft Corporate System's Acquisition of Strata e-Automation. CHICAGO, IL - Hanworth Weir Hanworth Weir Shareowner Services announced today that it has been appointed stock transfer agent and employee stock purchase plan provider for Bankcroft Corporate System's acquisition of Strata e-Automation. Headquartered in Phoenix, Arizona. Bankcroft Corporate Systems is a leading provider of automated payment processing systems to the banking and finance market. Strata e-Automation is involved in the development, testing and assessment of automated payment solutions to the financial security services sector.

"We are very pleased to have the opportunity to work with Hanworth Weir and look forward to a productive relationship with the company," said Gerald Hyslop, senior vice president and national sales director of Bankcroft Corporate Systems. "We believe the quality of our payment systems and automated payment services and products is unmatched in the industry and with the acquisition of Strata e-Automation, our strength and commitment to develop integrated software to address security issues ultimately enables us to provide superior service for our clients."

Hanworth Weir Shareowner Services is a full service stock transfer agency and registrar and offers transfer agent services to both publicly and privately held companies of all industry sectors, as well as those companies wishing to enter the public arena. Hanworth Weir Shareowner Services is staffed by a team of business professionals with extensive experience and expertise in all aspects of the securities industry coupled with a vast knowledge of computer technology, particularly in the financial arena. Our staff understands the unique challenges faced by its client companies and acts in partnership with them to achieve their corporate goals.

Stock transfer services offered through Hanworth Weir Shareowner Services include principal transfer agent, dividend reinvestment plans, employee stock purchase plans, stock option and restricted security plan administration, IPO services, administration rights agent, secondary offering, direct purchase plans, warrant agent, American Depositary Receipt (ADR), corporate action processing and online share administration and management.

Hanworth Weir Shareowner Services has developed and implemented a business simplification strategy across all services, that eliminates the need for certain types of time consuming and costly processing first time round. In its first year of implementation, this simple yet methodical strategy helped decrease rejects of stock transfer requests for insufficient information by more than a forty percent.

Hanworth Weir Shareowner Services Founder and CEO, Mr. Frank Weir told us "We are constantly looking at ways to increase shareowner use of self-service technologies, such as Voice Response and online transaction processing - and we are finding that with greater independence, higher shareowner satisfaction levels come naturally".

Hanworth Weir Shareowner Services offers conventional and structured stock transfer and share management solutions and currently serves as the trusted transfer agent to over 90 institutional and corporate clients worldwide. Headquartered in Chicago, IL, Hanworth Weir Shareowner Services has offices in 42 cities around the world with 11 offices being in various U.S. states.
