Luxury Hotel in Los Angeles Celebrates Oktoberfest in Montrose

Autumn Accommodations for Montrose Oktoberfest Patrons Available at Renaissance Los Angeles Airport Hotel

LOS ANGELES, CA, October 04, 2008 /24-7PressRelease/ -- It's Oktoberfest time again and the Montrose-Verdugo City Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the 31st Annual Montrose Oktoberfest. Taking place October 4, 2008 from noon to 11 p.m. in the 2300 and 2400 blocks of Honolulu Avenue just north of Glendale, Oktoberfest is a fun, community activity and Chamber fundraiser that is free to the public. Patrons coming to Los Angeles for Oktoberfest will find lovely autumn accommodations at the Renaissance Los Angeles Airport Hotel.

Staged in the outdoor shopping area, the street will be closed to traffic. There is something for everyone in the family with German bands playing for dancing, game booths, carnival rides, a continuous Bingo game, a nonstop variety show featuring local and professional amateur talent, a contest for best-dressed dogs and best Bavarian costumes, plus authentic German bratwurst, sauerkraut, strudel, hot dogs, soft drinks, coffee, beer, and carnival type fare.

Although games and rides start at noon, the official opening of Oktoberfest begins promptly at 1 p.m. Beer and wine sales start at 2 p.m. Enjoy a festive fall tradition in Montrose, then retreat to autumn accommodations at the impeccable Renaissance Los Angeles Airport Hotel. Boasting newly renovated Los Angeles hotel rooms and suites, this Los Angeles hotel features architecture inspired by LA's eclectic spirit and soul. Modern amenities include plush new bedding, Internet access, flat screen TVs and a myriad of other inclusions. For an extra touch of sophistication, Club Suites give guests terry-cloth bathrobes, continental breakfast and evening hors d'oeuvres to ensure that visitors are pampered with the utmost in indulgence and attention.

And if beer and bratwursts didn't fill you up, discover delectable Los Angeles dining at 96th Street Bistro, which is known for their regional California cuisine accompanied by an impressive regional wine selection. A casual environment to wind down after an action packed day celebrating all things German. Experience the perfect blend of comfort and convenience at the acclaimed Renaissance Los Angeles Airport Hotel.
