HOLLYWOOD, CA, October 06, 2008 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Model Management Inc. was recently named to represent the centerfolds of Playboy Enterprises, Inc. Known for discovering many of the hottest women on the planet, Playboy is one of most recognized brands in the world and maintains a commitment to discovering top quality modeling talent.

"We are delighted to announce our recent partnership with Playboy, and we look forward to continuing to represent and follow the high caliber of talent that embodies the Playboy brand." says Kurt Clements, Director of Model Management Inc.. "With our special arrangements of representing all the Playboy Playmate centerfolds worldwide, we make it easy for all your casting needs, whether they be print, conventions, movies, television or commercials."

Playboy represents the pinnacle of both the men's magazine in America and the modeling industry. As an iconic publication, Playboy is the vehicle for hundreds of models and entertainment celebrities. Former centerfolds include such A-listers as Pamela Anderson Lee and Denise Richards, among others.

In addition to their flagship magazine, Playboy Enterprises, Inc. has grown to include a wide array of talent in the entertainment and fashion industry, including the television show the Girls Next Door on the E! Network, lingerie and clothing lines, an expansive video catalog and much more.

"We've had an ongoing relationship with Playboy for over 13 years, starting from our very first Playboy client, Barbara Moore," explains Clements about his company's relationship with Playboy. Other Playmates represented by Model Management Inc. include Victoria Silvsteadt, Carrie Stevens, Jayde Nicole, Tiffany Taylor, Stephanie Larimore, Shauna Sand, Irina Voronina, Brittany Binger, and countless others.
