DENIM Public Relations presents..."Relief" A Charity Event for Haiti

DENIM Public Relations will be hosting a Charity Event for Haiti in Brooklyn, New York.

NEW YORK, NY, October 09, 2008 /24-7PressRelease/ -- In response to the recent hurricane crisis and the overwhelming poverty and hunger issues in Haiti, DENIM Public Relations, a Philadelphia and New York based PR Firm will be hosting a Charity Event in Brooklyn, New York on Wednesday, October 29, 2008 (Announced September 19, 2008).

"Relief" is the name of the event to be held at Tamboril Restaurant and Lounge. The evening will consist a cocktail hour, where guests, at their leisure, will be able to view Haitian Art Exhibits by world-renowned artist, Guy Stanley Philoche; works from the inspiring, Raphael Sagage and an exquisite photographic exhibit from Lady Michel Creation. Those who attend this event will be able to enjoy the sounds of Kompa, Zouk and other Caribbean Rhythms played by a live Afro-Jazz band as well as a musical selection from Brooklyn's own, Will Fisk who recently performed at SOB's and on Karismatic's "Unsigned Tour". Guests will be introduced to a Prix Fixe Menu featuring Haitian inspired cuisine, prepared by Chef Yvette Michelle Locrette - personal chef to Naomi Campbell, The Consulate of St. Lucia, and The Prime Minister of St. Lucia.

"This is only the beginning of our efforts in helping Haiti and other major causes. It is very important that businesses give back to the communities (and countries) who are in need. Haiti is very dear to my heart and as a PR Firm, we are doing everything in our power to get the word out and sound the alarm."

Sabrina Carrington, CEO

DENIM Public Relations is now accepting can goods, clothing, personal hygiene products as well as monetary donations - to be donated to Yele Haiti! and to be hand delivered into Haiti. The PR Firm is currently reaching out to businesses, retailers, boutiques, restaurants and communities to give to the cause.
