PilotOutlook launches Online scheduling system

PilotOutlook.com announces its new cost and time-effective solution for aviation businesses and consumers to successfully make and accept online reservations 24 hours a day 7 days a week

BELLEVUE, WA, October 10, 2008 /24-7PressRelease/ -- This real-time online scheduling service capable of serving multiple aviation business requirements will soon be out and running, offering a one-stop application that will simplify the lives of business owners and consumers alike. PilotOutlook.com scheduling system (<http://www.pilotoutlook.com/scheduling>) provides subscribers with more efficient and customer-friendly way of saving their time.

The development of this service is in direct response to a rapidly growing trend in online scheduling. The ability to accept appointments online will give our subscribers a competitive edge they need. Aviation businesses such as flying clubs, FBOs, aviation colleges, aviation military organizations and many others, will be able to sign up for the scheduling service right from the PilotOutlook.com site in less than ten minutes. Once the business begins using the service, consumers will be able to access and schedule their own appointments 365 days a year without the fear to be put on hold again.

PilotOutlook.com operates as a Software as a Service (SaaS) and offers a complete outsourced scheduling solution for subscribers who pay small monthly fee. PilotOutlook.com has developed a flexible Membership scheme that suits perfectly businesses of different sizes and orientations and allows every subscriber from an individual entrepreneur to a large enterprise to satisfy their specific appointment-scheduling needs. There is no software to install neither for subscribers nor for their customers because the system runs on the Web. All schedule data is maintained in a central database that is updated instantly whenever an appointment is booked, so there are never any conflicts.

PilotOutlook.com also gives businesses a unique opportunity to build an online relationship with their customers attracting new clients and keeping the loyal ones happy by offering online log book, pilot training material, aircraft ride share and other services that target each customer's specific needs.

PilotOutlook.com cares about security of online appointment reservation and employs SSL, daily backups and other preventive measures.

PilotOutlook.com was founded in July 2006 and is headquartered in Seattle metro area, city of Bellevue Washington. It is surrounded by magnificent mountain landscape and multiple high-tech companies attracted by unique business-friendly environment.
