A Southern, romance loving, engaged to a biker, eclectic mom is serving up sweets.

FAYETTEVILLE, GA, October 10, 2008 /24-7PressRelease/ -- A creative mom who loves spending time in the kitchen and who has a love for all things vintage, sweet, and sexy is cooking up some corset cupcakes that will appeal to all women. Whether you be from the city or mountains, beach town or country, you're sure to love these little delights. They have "sex appeal" and what women isn't crazy about showing off her feminine side?

They are so desirable because when you see it, you can't help but ooh and aah...They look sweet, sinful, naughty and nice all at the same time and even the girl who has everything can appreciate these.

The creator of these little marvels says that right now it's just a hobby, but that she would like to take these to the main stream because they are just so delightful...and fun to make.

Corest cupcakes that look good enough to eat, but these ones wont rot your teeth.
