The Edcomm Group Banker's Academy's Dr. Linda Eagle to Speak at the Islamic Finance News Forum

The Edcomm Group Banker's Academy's president and founder, Dr. Linda Eagle, will speak at the Islamic Finance News (IFN) Forum.

NEW YORK, NY, October 11, 2008 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The Edcomm Group Banker's Academy's president and founder, Dr. Linda Eagle, will speak at the Islamic Finance News (IFN) Forum on October 15, 2008, to be held at the LeParker Meridien in New York, NY.

Dr. Eagle will be the moderator for a forum entitled United States and The Islamic Capital Markets. This session will focus on the position of New York in regards to Islamic Finance. Participants will discuss the regulatory requirements and tax issues, what it takes to build the necessary infrastructure, recent developments in Islamic finance at home and abroad, and New York's future role and prospects in Islamic finance.

With previous experience working with Islamic financial institutions, Dr. Eagle will contribute her expertise to the discussion and help answer important questions. "I'm looking forward to sharing what The Edcomm Group Banker's Academy's has already accomplished in the world of Islamic finance, and learning more about how New York and the United States can continue to develop the Islamic banking world," Dr. Eagle said.

The Islamic Finance News Forum Road Show 2008 (http://www.islamicfinanceevents.com/ifnforum2008/about_ny.php) is a series of one-day forums hosted at 9 of the world's developing markets for Shariah finance in 2008. The road show focuses on new markets that are currently undeveloped in the Islamic Banking world, with special attention to those who already have international participation. The road show runs from April to December and visits Singapore, Hong Kong, Jakarta, Cairo, London, Istanbul, Karachi, and Brunei. The New York conference will be the fifth leg of the IFN show.

The Road Show is organized by REDmoney, the holding company for Islamic Finance News, Islamic Finance Training and Red Money Training. Islamic Financial News educates professionals around the world, who are potentially or currently involved in Islamic banking, on how to understand the market, the players, the individuals, and the benefits of Islamic banking compared to the conventional capital markets.
