D. Sam Scheele Inducted into Cambridge Who's Who Executive, Professional and Entrepreneurial Registry

He considers his hard work and persistence to be the driving forces behind his success.

LOS ANGELES, CA, October 11, 2008 /Cambridge Who's Who/ -- D. Sam Scheele, Chairman of Electric Resource Group, has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in all aspects of engineering management.

Mr. Scheele has 27 years of professional experience, with all but one of these years devoted to Electric Resource Group. An expert in engineering and finance management, he is in charge of overseeing engineering services. He earned his Master's Degree in Architecture from Yale University in 1961, and became involved in his profession because of his fascination with electrical engineering. He considers his hard work and persistence to be the driving forces behind his success.

Electric Resource Group manufactures dimethyl ether. Used as a substitute for diesel and gasoline, DME burns perfectly clean and is relatively easy to make from coal. It is used in many Asian countries and will eventually be used in the United States.
