Local Charleston Hotel Supports Children's Miracle Network

Renaissance Charleston Hotel Historic District Participates in Charleston Leg of Local Torch Relay

CHARLESTON, SC, October 12, 2008 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The Charleston Marriott Business Council is partnering with Food Lion to raise money for the local Children's Hospital. The Renaissance Charleston Hotel Historic District is one of 11 Marriott branded Charleston properties that are a part of the business council and are scheduled to participate and walk in Charleston's leg of this year's Torch Relay in support of the Children's Miracle Network (CMN).

Beginning at Brittlebank Park at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, October 22, 2008, the charity walk is sure to be an impactful event that supports local children, and the historic Charleston, South Carolina hotel is proud to participate in this notable event.

"We are thrilled to have the chance to impact not only children's lives, but Charleston children's lives by participating in the Torch Relay," explains Dannette Williams, general manager at the Charleston Historic District hotel. "Children's Miracle Network does such wonderful work amongst local communities, and it's a privilege to be a part of such an impactful charity event."

The Torch Relay for Children's Miracle Network is a unique and exciting 25 day event that traverses the country each fall via participants walking, running and cycling to raise funds for their local Children's Hospitals. The Torch Relay for Children's Miracle Network, Inc. is a registered not-for-profit organization, and all funds remain to support the Children's Hospitals in the communities where they were raised.
