Success for RI Web Designer Palmer Management at South Kingstown Chamber's Business to Business Statewide Expo

Many new contacts and a great time defined the October 1 event at URI's Ryan Center.

COVENTRY, RI, October 12, 2008 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Palmer Management, one of Rhode Island's top interactive marketing and web design firms, announced today their resounding success at the South Kingstown Chamber of Commerce Business to Business Statewide Expo.

The event, which boasted 160 exhibitors, multiple guest speakers, and a networking luncheon, provided a fantastic opportunity for Rhode Island's business community to create new and mutually beneficial relationships with other motivated local companies.

"Our crew had a great time at the expo. We met many new friends and possible clients, as well as having made contact with numerous possible new vendors for our company. With Darlene Evans and her chamber holding fantastic events like this, everyone leaves a winner" said Jamie Palmer, president of Palmer Web Design.
