Carrie R. Proctor Inducted into Cambridge Who's Who Executive, Professional and Entrepreneurial Registry

With more than 40 years of professional experience in financial management and defense, Ms. Proctor specializes in managing finance, accounting and budgeting for the military.

MARTINEZ, GA, October 12, 2008 /Cambridge Who's Who/ -- Carrie R. Proctor, Program Manager for the U.S. Army Medical Command, has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in all aspects of military financial management.

With more than 40 years of professional experience in financial management and defense, Ms. Proctor specializes in managing finance, accounting and budgeting for the military. She is primarily responsible for deploying new SAT software and assisting in establishing medical commands. Ms. Proctor began her career as a comptroller before progressing to her current position. She stays current with the trends in her profession by attending training programs and reading industry-related publications and feels that dishonesty and maintaining accurate accounting records are the most important issues facing her profession today.

Ms. Proctor received her Bachelor of Science and a Bachelor of Arts from Florida State University in 1992 and completed coursework in several high-level courses. Affiliated with the Association of the United States Army, she hopes to complete the SAT project and other army projects successfully and to build a complete enterprise system in the future.

An authority on military financial management, Ms. Proctor is available to speak with the media and may be reached via email at carrie.proctor1@us.army.mil.
