Carreg.co.uk offer customers the opportunity to build their own private number plate

Carreg.co.uk let their customers build their own private number plates using the latest technology on the carreg.co.uk website

STAFFORDSHIRE, UK, October 14, 2008 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The number one number plate dealer in the UK for online sales of private car registration numbers Carreg.co.uk have been in business for over twenty years, which is in itself an achievement. The company have managed to keep one step ahead of the competition by being innovative.

One such idea looks like it could be a real hit, Carreg.co.uk are have created a system where the customer can design their ideal number plate, they can then see what the number plate actually looks like on the site before ordering or making some final adjustments.

Managing Director of Carreg.co.uk Jason Wilkes said, we have sold many thousands of personal number plates from this section; they make great gifts as prices start from only 199 pounds. Please note that you cannot make an older vehicle look newer (e.g. PA55 ONE cannot go onto a vehicle with X556 JUJY). We do not offer any cooling off period here as the number plates are especially ordered for you. Our service begins as soon as you purchase your personalised number plate from us.

"We have sold many thousands of personal number plates from this section; they make great gifts as prices start from only 199 pounds."

This could be a great opportunity for a customer to buy a number plate, which has never been issued before; in fact, the Carreg.co.uk data has a massive thirty eight million DVLA registrations. Then within four days, the purchaser will be in receipt of a DVLA registration certificate.
