LJUBLJANA, SLOVENIA, October 15, 2008 /24-7PressRelease/ -- This month, IzziCarHire.com is happy to announce it has begun car rental services to a country on the North Sea coast in Western Europe: Belgium.

"Thanx to cheap, but quality airport services (for example Wizz Air), it is simple choice to see a lot in a short time and good for your pocket to travel to Belgium," said destinations manager Damijan Milivojevic.

Belgium is a densely populated country trying to balance the conflicting demands of urbanization, transportation, industry, commercial and intensive agriculture. It imports large quantities of raw materials and exports a large volume of manufactured goods, mostly to the EU.

Belgium has a lot of history behind itself: it became independent from the Netherlands in 1830. It was occupied by Germany during World Wars I and II and has many war graves near the battle zones, most of them are around Ieper. It has prospered in the past half century as a modern, technologically advanced European state and member of NATO and the EU. Tensions between the Dutch-speaking Flemings of the north and the French-speaking Walloons of the south have led in recent years to constitutional amendments granting these regions formal recognition and autonomy.

Want to know more about Belgium? There is a lot to see and it is cities are so close to each other. Direct flights to Brussels (6.5 hours from the East Coast) are from the US with American/Brussels Airlines, Continental, Delta, Jet Airways, US Airways, and United. From Brussels it is only 30 minutes by car to Ghent or Antwerp and only one hour to Bruges or Liege. By using IzziCarHire.com, our customers will be able to explore all Belgium cities have to offer with only a click of the mouse.
