Woodward receives AV Peer Review Rating from Martindale-Hubbell

San Jose, CA - October 7, 2008 - Perry Woodward, a partner at Terra Law, LLP of San Jose, CA and an elected member of the Gilroy City Council, has received the prestigious AV Peer Review Rating from LexisNexis Martindale-Hubbell, one of America's oldest and most respected legal evaluation services. An AV Peer Review Rating attests to a lawyer's preeminent legal ability and professional ethics and reflects the confidential opinions of the Bar and Judiciary. It is the highest ranking offered by Martindale-Hubbell. The AV Peer Review Rating is enjoyed by only a select number of lawyers who are recognized for their legal expertise, integrity, and overall excellence in the practice of law.

The Lexis-Nexis Martindale-Hubbell evaluation is the second major honor received by a partner at Terra Law, LLP in the last few months. In July, partner Breck E. Milde was named Northern California Super Lawyer for 2008.
