

PROJECT NAUTILUS

World Record Dive Attempt

100 HOUR CONTINUOUS DIVE

WHAT IS PROJECT NAUTILUS?

We are adventure seekers and philanthropists. We're equal parts daredevil, engineer, athlete, and entrepreneur!

In 2012, we had an idea! We wanted to make an attempt to break a Guinness World Record; specifically, we set out to keep a diver submerged in open water, on scuba, for 100 straight hours. Being diligent sorts, we did our homework, and discovered that previous holders of this record were able to raise significant funds for charity!

Suddenly, our goal shifted! The Guinness World Record wasn't our singular goal, anymore – Now? Our real goal is to use the record attempt to raise $1,000,000.00 for a good cause. Project Nautilus was established as a non-profit corporation, with the goal of facilitating our world record dive and using the publicity that has historically surrounded this type of attempt to raise operational capital for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Scan This QR Code To Visit Our Website To Learn More. www.projectnautilus.org

GET INVOLVED!

Our mission to break a Guinness World Record, and to raise $1 million dollars for the Make-a-Wish Foundation is in full swing, but we need your help! Visit our website, or contact us, to find out how you can support the team as a donor, sponsor, or volunteer!